

Return All Phone Calls

Return all phone calls: Personally and promptly return all calls from patients and document each call. While some may say this is impractical or unrealistic, it is practiced by many physicians who enjoy a track record of no claims or lawsuits and extremely loyal patients. When documenting calls in which medical information is discussed, make sure to include the date and time, essence of the problem, and advice given.